

DOMESTIC WATER MAIN EXTENSIONS CHECKLIST

1. Developer submits legal description of proposed development.
2. District provides standards, conditions and specifications on our website.
3. Developer signs Agreement by the Friday prior to the Regular Board of Director's meeting on the second Tuesday of each month along with a check for the Deposit.
4. Developer submits distribution plan designed by licensed Professional Engineer.
5. District staff will review the plans and either accept them, modify them, ask for additional information or will reject the plan.
6. Water main extension constructed by licensed and bonded contractor to District Standards as certified by a licensed Professional Engineer.
7. District inspects and observes testing of water extension prior to approval.
8. Developer posts a one-year maintenance bond for the materials and workmanship if applicable.
9. Developer submits reproducible copy of as-built drawings and easements certified by the licensed Professional Engineer.
10. Developer conveys system to District for operation and maintenance and certifies the extension costs.
11. District notifies Chelan County, if applicable, that utility provisions for plat have been completed.